NOW THEREFORE, the Marshall County Board of Commissioners, declares, pursuant to the provisions of IC 10-14-3-29, that a state of local public health emergency exists in the County and that we hereby invoke and declare those portions of the Indiana Code which are applicable to the conditions and have caused issuance of this declaration, to be in full force and effect in the County for the exercise of all necessary emergency authority for protection of lives and property of the people of Marshall County.

All public offices and employees of Marshall County are hereby directed to exercise the utmost diligence in the discharge of duties required of them for the duration of the emergency and in execution of emergency laws, regulations, and directives whether state or local.

All residents are called upon and directed to comply with necessary emergency measures, to cooperate with public officials and disaster service forces in executing emergency operation plans, and to obey and comply with the lawful direction of properly identified officers.

The Marshall County Board of Commissioners may make, amend and rescind orders, rules and regulations necessary for emergency management purposes and to supplement carrying out the emergency management laws that are not inconsistent with orders, rules or regulations adopted by the governor or by a state agency exercising a power delegated to it by the governor, the emergency management program and comprehensive emergency management plan of Marshall County, and any such orders, rules and regulations have the full force and effect of law when filed in the office of the clerk of Marshall County.

This order is effective at 9:00 A.M. on February 9, 2021 and will expire seven (7) days thereafter, but its effectiveness may be extended by act of the Commissioners.

IN WITNESS, WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands this 8th day of February, 2021.
